

Memorandum of Agreement
Between the
Anchorage School District
And the
Anchorage Education Association

RE: Article 407 Parent-Teacher Conferences

The parties mutually agree to the following as a one time, non-precedent setting agreement related to Article 407 Parent-Teacher Conferences:

- Due to the emergency closure of schools on January 14, 15, and 16, 2009, the Anchorage School District did not meet the Department of Education student contact requirements.
- The Commissioner of Education required the ASD and Anchorage teachers to make up student contact days.
- For the Spring of 2009, Parent Conferences will be canceled. Teachers will teach full days for the week of March 23-27, 2009.
- There will be no evening conferences scheduled.
- Teachers will teach a full day on Friday since they are not required to hold evening parent conferences.
- No schools will request, encourage, or pressure teachers to hold special conferences for parents due to the lack of 3rd quarter parent conferences.
